

LABORITES IN SPECIAL CONFERENCE

Ireland and Unemployment Subjects Discussed at
The Meeting

BY EARLE C. REEVES
STAFF CORRESPONDENT
LONDON, Dec. 28.—Constitutional freedom for Ireland as a means of bringing about Irish peace and immediate opening of trade relations with Russia as a means of alleviating unemployment in Great Britain, were discussed at a special conference of the British labor party at Westminster Hall today.

This meeting was held pursuant to a call issued by the national executive committee of the British labor party on Dec. 15 to consider:

First—Ireland.
Second—Unemployment.
The executive committee had already prepared a number of resolutions. One called for a judicial inquiry into reprisals in Ireland, and challenged the British government to discontinue the information on reprisals brought back from Ireland by the Labor commission headed by Arthur Henderson which conducted an independent investigation.

Another resolution recommended an election in Ireland for the selection of members of a proposed constituent assembly. This assembly would be given powers to work out an Irish constitution, but it would be subject to conditions protecting Irish minorities and also to limitations to prevent Ireland from menacing England in a naval or military way.

Other resolutions demanded punishment of soldiers and policemen guilty of reprisals and the immediate withdrawal of British troops, putting responsibility for the maintenance of order upon the shoulders of the local authorities.

The executive committee affirmed its satisfaction over the efforts that have been under way in behalf of an Irish traced.

Ireland was under discussion all morning and unemployment was not taken up until afternoon.

A number of relief suggestions were made, but the two which received most attention were:

1. Immediate peace with the Russian soviet republic and opening of trade.

2. A scheme of credits to enable commercial dealings with Central Europe.

An unemployment "dole" of two pounds per week for men and 25 shillings to women to be paid from a national fund, was recommended.

The report of the labor commission which had investigated reprisals in Ireland had been made public Tuesday night, on the eve of the labor party meeting.

UTILITIES INDUSTRY MEETING

Convention Set for Jan. 13, Will Take Public into Its Confidence

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 28.—Indiana public utilities are going to "lay their cards on the table" and take the people into their confidence at the meeting of the Indiana Public Utility Association in Indianapolis January 13—the first ever held in the state at which all branches of the utilities industry will be represented.
It was announced today by Charles H. Henry, president of the association.

Philip H. Gadsden of Philadelphia, president of the American Electric Railway Association and chairman of the emergency committee of the American Gas Association, is to be one of the chief speakers at the meeting.
Plans for the session are being made by a committee headed by Harry Reid, president of the Indiana Public Service company. Working with him are Frank Wampler of the Indiana Bell Telephone company, Frank Jordan of the Indianapolis Water company and S. E. Mulholland of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, Fort Wayne. It is planned to have speakers representing every branch of the industry.

Mr. Henry, who is president of the Indianapolis and Cincinnati Traction company, will preside at all the sessions.

"We are adopting a new idea by planning to have our sessions semi-public," said Mr. Henry. "We can not of course hold public meetings within the time and space available, but we are asking all utility company operators to attend to bring with them representative men from their respective communities. We hope to have the list of guests include leaders in public thought from all parts of the state, such as newspaper editors, city and county officials, bankers and business men generally."

"The public utility industry is the people's business. It is part of our task, therefore, to accommodate ourselves to the public wish. On the other hand, we feel that the public should know our problems and understand the difficulties that are likely to interfere with efficient service in these times of high prices and scarcity of materials."

"For this reason, instead of holding nothing but secret sessions, we plan to invite in representatives of the public and lay our cards on the table before them. We are planning a strong program and hope to have the biggest and best utilities meeting the state has ever known. It will be the first time utilities of every kind have gathered in one meeting in Indiana."

FIRST VENTURE INTO OUTLAWRY PROVES FATAL

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Their first venture into outlawry today had brought death to one and prison to another of the twin sons of an automobile mechanic of Greenville, Ill. Joseph Scott is dead, slain while attempting to escape from a posse, and Jacob Scott, his twin brother, faces a long prison term for participation in the robbery of the Chicago-New Orleans special of the Illinois Central Railroad.

The robbery occurred near Gilman, Ill., sixty miles south of Chicago. The youthful bandits obtained money and valuables worth about $2,000 from thirty occupants of Pullman cars attached to the train.

Boarding the train at Gilman, the two brothers rode for thirty miles, leisurely searching the sleeping passengers. They hopped off at the suburbs of Kankakee.

After alighting at Aroma Park on the outskirts of Kankakee, the bandits inquired concerning trains for the East of the station agent.
Word of the robbery already had been flashed along the telegraph wires and the agent became suspicious of his questioners. He summoned a posse by telegraph and detained his visitors by "kidding them along."

Just as a Big Four train for the East pulled into the station with a posse, Jacob Scott, who was armed with a gun, fired at the officers, but Joseph fled. A shot was fired and he stumbled and fell. He was carried to the hospital and died after several shots at the officers through a door. After firing a volley in return and smashing the door, the robbers fled. He died at the Kankakee general hospital.

SPANIARD IS KILLED IN GARY

With his pockets turned inside out and a bullet hole through his heart, Francisco Diaz, 1701 Delaware street, was found murdered beneath the L train high line on Virginia street in Gary early last night.

When the body was first discovered it was believed that Diaz had been frozen to death, but upon closer investigation, a bullet hole disclosed a gun wound and finding his pockets turned inside out robbery was the apparent motive for the crime.

According to the story told by Alvan-do Abusoul and Manuel Ordaz, they were returning from work in the mill last night and at the high line heard a revolver shot and a short time later saw the forms of two men being towards Broadway along railroad track.
The body was removed to William's mortuary.

Diaz came to Gary last September from Spain where he leaves a wife and family.

WON'T BE SENT UNTIL NEXT MONTH

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—L. C. A. K.
Martens, soviet Russia's representative in the U. S., who is ordered deported, probably will not be sent from the U. S. until late in January, it was announced at the labor department today.

A party of deportees will sail from New York on Jan. 15 for Libau, Via Southampton, but the department does not expect to be able to include Martens in this sailing list.

FOR FEDERAL TAX EXEMPTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—An amendment to the constitution abolishing exemption from federal taxes for all state and municipal bonds and all municipalities of state and municipal officials and providing that the federal government shall have power to tax all incomes no matter from what source derived, is proposed in a resolution introduced in the house today by Representative McFadden, chairman of the house banking and currency committee.

Beaten Man Robbed Swears Out Warrants

Anton Obunus appeared in Judge Laube's court yesterday and swore out warrants for the arrest of Henry Perlik and Mike Slabot, who, he said, had beaten him and then relieved him of his pocket book which contained $15.00. Anton's head and face were covered with bruises and cuts which he painfully exhibited after removing the bandages.

Obunus stated that while he was walking along Grant street Sunday night, two men attacked him, one striking him with a baton and after beating him they took his pocket book containing $15.00.

Announce Civil Service Examinations

The United States civil service commission announces that an open competitive examination for the position of unskilled labor will be held at Gary, Ind., January 13, according to an announcement received from the secretary of the sixth civil service district at Cincinnati, Ohio, today.
The examinations will be held to secure eligibles from which to make certification to fill vacancies as they may occur in positions filled under the labor regulations in Gary. A vacancy now exists in the position of unskilled labor (male) at $600 plus $240 per annum in the custodian service at he drove her from the home. At times she was forced to go out and work to
